

UTAH DECA CONFERENCE ATTIRE For FLC and State CDC

MEMBERS AND ADVISORS

In an attempt to clarify the dress code used at all DECA conferences, the following guidelines have been developed: proper dress for any occasion is a matter of exercising good judgment; thus, should a question concerning the dress code arise, refer to these definitions BEFORE making a decision.

DEFINITIONS: Applicable at all DECA conferences.

CASUAL ATTIRE

- Men: Slacks, cords, knee-length walking shorts, sport shirts, denim shirts and DECA t-shirts and sweatshirts. NO DENIM JEANS (except where noted), overalls, shorts, sweatpants, lycra or spandex stretch pants/shorts or head wear.
- Women: Slacks, skirts, blouses, sports shirts, denim shirts, knee-length walking shorts, and DECA t-shirts and sweatshirts. NO DENIM JEANS (except where noted), overalls, shorts, halter tops, sweatpants, sweat suits, lycra or spandex stretch pants/shorts or head wear.

BUSINESS ATTIRE

- Men: Dress slacks, dress shirt, dress shoes and socks, sweater and/or sport coat. (Tie is recommended.) A dress suit or DECA blazer is also appropriate.
- Women: Dress slacks, dress, coordinated shirt/blouse, hose, dress shoes. A dress suit or a DECA blazer is also appropriate.

| Conference Activities:   | Appropriate Dress                          |
|---|---|
| 1. Travel to/from conference  | Casual attire                                     |
| 2. General Sessions, such as Opening and Closing                                | Business attire                                   |
| 3. Workshops  | Business attire                                   |
| 4. Competition  | Business attire                                   |
| 5. Dance  | Casual attire                                     |
| 6. Non-conference activities such as shopping, sightseeing, going out to dinner | Casual attire                                     |
| 7. Activities such as swimming, jogging, tennis                                 | Appropriate recreational attire for that activity |
| 8. At any time during the conference while on conference site            | Business or casual attire                         |
| 9. Closing Session  | Business attire                                   |